NOON 7
DECEMBER!

Ron Aitken will speak for Scotland and the UK to promote cooperation and peace.

Cllr Ron Aitken - a street in France has been named after his uncle Robertson Aitken who fought and died to liberate Europe. Ron says " The EU has kept peace on our continent for 50 years. Bush and Blair's illegal war have shattered this progress. As his nephew I understand these issues and am asking you to send me to Europe as part of a strong Libdem Team.

We must bring the Troops back from Iraq as a first step to rebuilding friendships in Europe.

Robertson Aitken (far Rt) aged 22 with crew of Lancaster LM575 (XV Sqn) which came down in the village of Jouars France where he is at rest in the churchyard. Each year Poppy Wreaths from Scotland are laid at the graveside. In an act of reconciliation French and German residents have named a local street after the air gunner.
